English Fun Day Activity List

Pictures With Your Bodies

In teams, students create shapes, letters, and objects with their bodies, adaptable to any theme.

Spinning Wheel

Each number has something that you have to do or answer to practice English. Spin the wheel to find out what you have to do.

Beanbag Toss

Students throw a beanbag through the correct hole in the board based on the theme (animals, seasons, food, places, etc) to answer questions.

Spinning Plates

Learn to spin plates like a real circus performer. Engage with English by speaking different code words while spinning the plate.

Point A to Point B

Students use a map to give directions in a small town, including locations like the cinema, shopping mall, and supermarket.

Sound Effects

Students work in teams to create sound effects for different scenes or actions. Use your voice, body and objects to make the sounds as creative and realistic as possible!

Match the Country

This memory matching game involves matching images of famous buildings, people, and places to their respective countries, and it can be customized to any theme.

Costume Design

Students will match character descriptions with clothes on a board and select appropriate clothing based on the season provided.

Chopstick Race

A race to move balls from one cup to another with a set of chopsticks. After moving each ball, you must complete a task before moving on to the other balls.

Photo Booth

Take photos with prop/costumes that relate to our show or your theme. The photobooth can also be on stage with one of our touring show backdrops.

Stories With Your Bodies

Students will work together to create a three picture story using their bodies.

Simon Says

The classic game of Simon Says. Follow instructions in English and the winner gets a prize!

Juggling Scarves

Learn to juggle like a circus performer while engaging with English!

Drama Activity

In this charades activity, form groups and unleash student creativity by crafting shapes, images, and stories through acting.

Stage Combat

(smaller groups)

Students are taught basic stage combat techniques by a professional actor, such as pulling hair or stomping on a foot realistically and safely.

Testimonials

"Our students are passive and shy, and their English foundation is weak, but they actively gave responses and interacted with the actors on the stage, which really impressed our principal and teachers. Your actors' brilliant performance drew my students into the story which made it a success."

- Ms Fung, English Teacher, Lui Ming Choi Lutheran College

"Our school has invited Dove Tales to put on their shows for our students for 3 academic years. The plots were fascinating and entertaining. Most importantly, with their energetic and expressive performance, our students were able to understand the plot even if they couldn't comprehend all the lines. We would highly recommend their shows for Hong Kong schools."

- Ms Chan, Vice Principal, Emmanuel Primary School, Kowloon

"It has been the third year having Dove Tales Theatre performed at our school. From Bible Quest, The Nativity to Shakespeare, we have experienced the dedication of Dove Tales, trying very best to deliver the best Bible stories and ancient classics to our local students in Hong Kong. The students have become more eager to read story books and learn English through storytelling, drama, and other creative activities because of Dove Tales' performance."

- Ms Sun, English Panel Chairperson, Ling To Catholic Primary School

"The drama was presented in a hilarious way which successful caught the attention of all students and even teachers! Also, it was very interactive that not only a small number of students and teachers were being invited to be part of the drama, the audience also got opportunities to participate in the drama. It was a great experience for both students and teachers. Thank you very much for giving us such a wonderful show!"

- Ms Fung, Head of English, Creative Primary School

"Thank you very much for bringing us and our students so much fun and presenting the story in such an exciting way. We love it. Our teachers have given you and your team 'thumbs-up'. It's been a long time we have seen a drama performance with so much 'heart' in it, including your planning, acting, singing and everything! Keep it up. I believe you and your team will shine in Hong Kong. Thanks for bringing this excitement to schools in Hong Kong."

- Ms Chan, English Panel Chair, Sai Kung Sung Tsun Catholic School

"Our students had a wonderful time watching your musical drama. The Bible Quest truly brought the Bible to life. It was entertaining, engaging and most importantly, left students with an insatiable curiosity towards Bible stories. We are glad we decided to team up with you guys for our International Festival 2016!"

- English Panel Chair, St Clare's Primary School

"The show was wonderful! The kids enjoyed watching it, as well as the interaction and comedy elements in it. The students could benefit from your dramatic and powerful acting."

- Mr Lai, English Teacher, HKFYG Lee Shau Kee College

"The drama show 'The Tortoise and the Hare' delivered by Dove Tales Theatre Company was a great show that provided a very good English exposure for our students in a fun way."

- Miss Wan, English Panel Head, TWGHs Chow Yin Sum Primary School,
